Blackdown - LOCAL

Made using a blend of 11 botanicals and uniquely, locally sourced silver birch sap. The sap is blended in after distillation. Its presence is noticeable in the gin too with the woody aromas blending with the juniper and coriander. £4.00 | 37.5% | Served with a lime wedge

Boë Viojet Gin

We are delighted to bring you this sophisticated gin that subtly brings to mind the taste of parma violets. Delicately sweet but balanced with citrus to give a rounded flavour. £4.25 | 41.5% | Served with a sprinkling of edible rose petals

Hendrick's

The quintessential Britishness exudes from the bottle; add to this the essence of rose and cucumbers and there you have it, a slightly sweet silky smooth gin. £4.25 | 41.4% | Served with cucumber

London No. 1

A typically classic London style gin with juniper upfront and a dry finish. Number One gin is unique in that it has a final infusion with bergamot oil in the mix, giving that instantaneously recognisable perfume of Earl Grey tea. £4.25 | 47% | Served with a lime wedge

Bombay Sapphire

Bombay Sapphire was one of the pioneer premium gins and remains a leader. Flavoured with 10 botanicals, it offers up quite a spicy hit with perhaps less juniper than some. £4.00 | 40% | Served with a slice of lemon

Martin Miller's

The distilled spirit for Martin Miller's is sent to Iceland where it is blended with cucumber flavouring and glacial water. The gin is aromatic with orange zest dominating a pepper finish. £4.25 | 40% | Served with a strawberry

Brighton Gin - LOCAL

The Brighton Spirits Company was founded on a shared desire to create a gin worthy of this vibrant city. It is a classically styled gin with milk thistle evident on the nose, dry with piny juniper to the fore and just a hint of citrus. £4.25 | 40% | Served with a slice of orange

Puerto de Indias

Intense aromas of strawberry and juniper on the nose, the taste of strawberry is subtle and there are delicate touches of liquorice and gentle citrus notes on the palate. £4.25 | 40% | Served with a strawberry

Bulldog

This gin uses 12 botanicals and is quadruple distilled and triple filtered. The well balanced botanicals that include dragon eye, poppy and lotus leaves, result in a soft, dry London gin with a lingering nutty and pepper aftertaste. £4.00 | 40% | Served with a lime wedge

Sipsmith

Sipsmith uses 10 traditional botanicals; is clean with a mild spice juniper and zest finish. It has a wellbalanced palate. VJOP (Very Junipery Over Proof) is, as the name suggests, all juniper upfront, spice and chocolate. £4.25 | 41.6% | Served with star anise
